

Additionally. Unless you have been grossly negligent or have engaged in fraud, you will not be liable for any unauthorized Transactions using your lost or stolen Express Check™ Card. This additional limit on liability does not apply to ATM Transactions or to Transactions using your PIN which are not processed by STAR™.

NOTIFICATION OF LOSS. If you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call: (502) 964-7575 or 1-800-292-2960; or after business hours for your Express Check or ATM Card at 1-800-523-4175; or write: Debit Cards, Class Act Federal Credit Union, 3620 Fern Valley Road, Louisville, KY 40219.

BUSINESS DAYS. Our business days are Monday through Friday. Credit Union holidays are not included.

ACCOUNT ACCESS. Indicated below are types of Transactions we are capable of handling, some of which may not apply to your account. The information disclosed to you upon receipt of your Card or PIN will control as to access available to you. These Transactions may be at an ATM or POS, through the audio response or CyberBranch@Home, or any other terminal or device provided now or in the future that is initiated by use of your Card or PIN or both, including:

- Withdraw cash from your Share Draft or Savings Accounts.
- Make deposits to your Share Draft or Savings Accounts at locations so designated to receive deposits.
- Transfer funds between your Share Draft and Savings Accounts whenever you request.
- Pay for purchases or services at places that have agreed to accept the Card or PIN.
- Balance inquiries for a current amount in your Share Draft or Savings Accounts. This figure may not agree with your records, as some withdrawals, share drafts, or deposits may not yet be posted to your account.
- Some of these services may not be available at all terminals.

LIMITATIONS. You may make unlimited transfers up to the amount of funds in your Savings and Share Draft Accounts through the ATM, POS, CyberBranch@Home or telephone during any one-business calendar day. You also may make unlimited deposits. However, you may only make withdrawals for combined cash total per day per Card as disclosed to you at the time of approval. During any interruption of the electronic services system ("off-line" situation), the dollar amount and frequency of Transactions may be reduced. All Transactions made with the Card or a PIN will be subject to the rules, regulations, bylaws or operating procedures of this Credit Union.

PRE-AUTHORIZED CREDITS. You may make arrangements for certain direct deposits to be accepted into your Share Draft or Savings Accounts.

FEES. Certain fees may be imposed for use of your Card or your PIN as disclosed to you at the time of approval and on the Rate and Fee Schedule you received. If you need information concerning fees for your Accounts, please request a Fee Schedule by calling (502) 964-7575 or 1-800-292-2960; or writing New Accounts, Class Act Federal Credit Union, 3620 Fern Valley Road, Louisville, KY 40219.

We do not charge for direct deposits, preauthorized payments, or transfers to any type of account.

When you use an ATM that is not operated by us or by an Alliance One participant, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator of the machine or by an automated transfer network used to complete the transfer and you may also be charged a fee for a balance inquiry.

THIRD PARTY DISCLOSURE. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or transfers you made as follows:

- Where it is necessary for completing transfers; or
- In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- In order to comply with a government agency or court orders; or
- If you give us your written permission.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. You will receive certain documentation.

Terminal Transfers. You may receive a receipt as an acknowledgment for each Transaction made to or from your account at any device provided by us now or in the future.

Pre-Authorized Credits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from any company, individual, or the government, you may call us at (502) 964-7575 or 1-800-292-2960 to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.

Periodic Statements. You will receive a monthly statement of your Share Draft Account unless there are no transfers in a particular month. In any case you will get the statement at least quarterly. You will receive a monthly statement on your Savings Account unless there are no electronic funds transfer monetary Transactions in a particular month. In which case you will receive a quarterly or annual statement on your Savings Account.

PRE-AUTHORIZED PAYMENTS. If you have a written agreement with us or any company so authorized to initiate such agreement on your account, then we will debit your account as you ordered with the following conditions.

Right to Stop Payment. If you told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account you can stop these payments. Here's how:

Call us in care of the Accounting Department at (502) 964-7575 or 1-800-292-2960; or write: Accounting Department, Class Act Federal Credit Union, 3620 Fern Valley Road, Louisville, KY 40219. A stop payment order must be received at least 3 business days prior to the scheduled pre-authorized payment date. An oral stop payment order is effective for 14 days, unless confirmed in writing with us during that time. Stop payment orders are subject to our current charge for that service as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule.

You are responsible for providing the correct information related to the transaction and failure to do so may result in payment of the item. You agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Credit Union for all expenses, costs, and damages incurred by payment of the requested stop payment item if such payment is the result of failure to meet the time requirements noted above, or if such payment is the result of failure to furnish the information completely, accurately and correctly.

You may request to release the stop payment order by notifying us in writing.

Notice of Varying Amount. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

Liability for Failure to Stop Payment. If you order us to stop one of these payments 3 business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages. This liability will be limited to the dollar amount of the transfer plus any fees and charges which may result from the transfer.

OUR OBLIGATIONS. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will NOT BE LIABLE, for instance:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer.
- If, when applicable by prior agreement, the transfer would go over the limit on your overdraft line.
- If the equipment that you are using does not have enough cash to complete the transaction.
- If the terminal or system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
- If the machine malfunctions or ceases to operate during a transaction.
- If you make a mistake using the ATM, Point-of-Sale, or any other terminal device provided now or in the future.
- If we correct the error before the error causes you any actual damage.
- If funds in your account have been attached, garnished, levied against or we are prohibited by law from paying on your account.
- There may be further exceptions stated in agreements with you, which may be changed from time to time without notice to you.

ERROR RESOLUTION NOTICE

In case of questions or errors about your Transactions, call or write us as soon as you can. If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on your statement or receipt, notify us as soon as you can during business hours:

Call: (502) 964-7575 or 1-800-292-2960; or write: New Accounts, Class Act Federal Credit Union, 3620 Fern Valley Road, Louisville, KY 40219.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we first sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

1. Tell your name and account number; and
2. Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and
3. Tell the dollar amount or suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (5 business days for Express Check Card POS Transactions and 20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days (90 days if the transfer involved a new account, POS Transaction, or foreign-initiated transfer) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days (5 business days for Express Check Card POS Transactions and 20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation.

You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS AT CLASS ACT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

This policy statement applies to Share Draft Accounts. These are our transaction accounts, which permit an unlimited number of payments to third parties and unlimited number of telephone and preauthorized transfers to other accounts of yours with us. Feel free to ask us whether any of your other accounts might also be under this policy.

Our policy is to make funds from your deposit available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written.

Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before 5:00 P.M. E.S.T. on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 5:00 P.M. E.S.T. or on a day we are not open, we may consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open, including deposits made in Night Depositories located on the premises of the Credit Union Offices.

Longer Delays May Apply

In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the first business day after the day of your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $100 of your deposits will be available on the first business day.

If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees (such as through the night depository, or by mail), or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit.

If you will need the funds from a deposit right a way, you should ask us when the funds would be available.

In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following conditions:

- * We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- * You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day.
- * You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- * You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- * There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts

If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open.

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the first business day we receive the deposit. Funds from the deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you (and you may have to use a special deposit slip). The excess over $5,000 will be available on the seventh business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than US Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit.

Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit.

Deposits at Automated Teller Machines

OUR ATMs. For ATMs that we own or operate, funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made prior to 3:00 P.M. EST on a business day will be handled under the general rules for other deposits. Deposits made after 3:00 P.M. EST may not be available until the next business day after the day of your deposit.

All ATMs that we own or operate are identified as our machines.

ATMs NOT OWNED BY US. Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at ATMs we do not own or operate may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit.

Dividend Payment Policy

The dividend policy for this Credit Union is set forth in the Truth-In-Savings Rate and Fee Schedule.

CONSUMER DATA PROTECTION PRIVACY INFORMATION SHEET CLASS ACT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION'S PRIVACY POLICY

At Class Act Federal Credit Union ("CAFCU"), we do everything we can to protect the privacy of consumers and our members including those who visit our Web site. We value your time and your interest in this organization. We place a high priority on ensuring the security and privacy of data pertaining to each consumer. CAFCU is aware that you have entrusted us with your financial information and accounts, and also have shared personal information with us.

Class Act Federal Credit Union Consumer Data Protection and Privacy Practices
CAFCU's Board of Directors and Staff believe it is important to inform you of the data protection and privacy practices that we have instituted. We have:

1. Established specific security protection practices to ensure privacy of information
2. Defined control methods to limit access to consumer information
3. Formalized procedures and processes to ensure the maintenance of accurate information
4. Established procedures and restrictions on disclosure of member account information
5. Defined standards for consumer data collection, use, and methods of storage
6. Required consumer data privacy covenants in third-party service and business arrangements
7. Ensured our staff is committed to protect a consumer's right to data privacy
8. Disclosed to our members our privacy benchmarks and provided an overview of institution privacy practices

To ensure that we successfully accomplish these priority practices, as an organization we have:

- Established formal guidelines for management and staff to ensure that the protection of consumer data and staff awareness of data privacy are top priorities
- Developed and provided to potential and existing members a detailed notice about our data protection and privacy policy and practices
- Established guidelines that dictate conditions under which we can disclose nonpublic personal information about consumers to nonaffiliated parties, and communicated those guidelines via this notice

The consumer data protection/privacy notice serves as a reference guide for consumers, members, credit union staff, and management regarding the protection of your member data and your privacy.

Accuracy of Information

Every effort is made to ensure that our records of your information are complete and correct. If an error is noted on your statement or in any other communication from us, please contact us at the number listed on your account materials as soon as possible.

The Collection and Use of Information

We need to collect information about you to conduct our business relationship. However, in order to protect your information, we maintain and enforce strict security procedures.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we received from you on applications or other forms
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency

We collect only the information necessary to deliver quality products and services to our members. Only authorized and trained employees have access to member information. We also are continually assessing new technology as it becomes available in order to continue to best protect your privacy.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law.

We may disclose the following information to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with which we have joint marketing agreements:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, and social security number

- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as your account balance, credit card usage, and payment history
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as your creditworthiness and credit history

We may disclose all of the above information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

Sharing of Information within the Credit Union

We restrict access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products and services to you.

Under certain circumstances, member information may be revealed to other departments within our credit union in order to market additional products and to ensure we are considering your entire relationship with us when making decisions about your products (e.g., offering you new loan products). We might also share information with these departments in order to provide services necessary to maintain your accounts (such as data processing). The types of information include information about your identity, information about your transaction history with the credit union, information about your current financial condition (such as details about your income and assets), and information obtained from a credit report or other sources outside of the credit union.

If you decide to terminate your membership or become an inactive member, we will adhere to the privacy policies and practices as described in this notice.

Sharing of Information

As permitted by law, we may share information about your identity (such as name, social security number, driver's license number), transactions with our credit union (such as account numbers, repayment history), your application (such as income and/or asset information), and credit report or other similar information (such as information about your credit history).

Situations where this type of sharing would be appropriate could include:

- When we contract with third parties to help deliver our services to you
- Involvement in programs for business, involving employers of cardholders for travel, purchasing, etc.
- When credit bureaus or others, as appropriate, in the course of customary business practices, ask for credit references
- As required by law, in the instance of lien recordings, a sale or merger of part of our business

Confidentiality of Member Information in Other Circumstances

When we share information with such affiliated third parties, we hold all such parties to the same or higher standards as we do ourselves with respect to privacy of your information. As an added safeguard, we also require them to allow us to audit them for compliance in this regard.

Our Web Site

When you visit our Web site at www.classact.org, we want you to feel secure that we are respecting your privacy. The only private information we have about you is the information you choose to give us (such as providing feedback or completing a form). We do not release that information to others without notifying you on the form and getting your consent.

We may use "cookies" on some pages of our Web site for the purpose of serving you better when you return to that site. A cookie is a small element of data that a Web site can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your system. Data collected from cookies helps us determine how many people visit certain pages, ultimately enabling us to improve our site design and content. If you prefer, your Web browser can be set to provide you a notice before you accept a cookie.

PC Home Banking

Each member that has requested CyberBranch@Home Services with our credit union has been provided by us and your internet provider a personal identification number, authorized access code, password, and assigned communication telephone number. We use these combined security controls and special communication lines to not only protect our CyberBranch@Home users, but also limit the risk to unauthorized data access or security problems. If someone wants to use this service, he or she must submit an application (listed at our Web site) and be notified of approved authorization and security codes.

E-Mail

When you send us an e-mail that is general in nature and we respond, these are generally not secure. A secure (encrypted) e-mail form is available as appropriate for e-mails that contain personal information that should remain secure.

Children's Privacy

Protecting the privacy of our children is essential. For that reason, our Web site is not structured to attract children under the age of 13. Parental consent is required for children under 13 to provide personally identifiable information via our Web site.

How to Contact Us

If you would like additional information, or have questions regarding CAFCU's privacy policy, please telephone us or send us an e-mail. You may also write us, or stop by one of our offices and discuss your questions with one of our staff.

WIRE TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

According to the Bylaws of the Credit Union, Article 4A of the Kentucky Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC"), and Subpart B of Regulation J by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve ("Reg J"), the following disclosure governs the movement of funds by means of wire transfers, automated clearinghouse ("ACH") credits and some book transfers on the Credit Union records.

This disclosure sets forth the duties, responsibilities, and liabilities of all parties involved in a funds transfer. Using the Credit Union to send or receive funds transfers shall constitute your acceptance of these terms.

To the extent that the terms of this disclosure are in conflict with any other disclosure previously presented to you concerning the terms and conditions of your membership and your accounts, the terms set forth in this disclosure shall control. This disclosure applies to funds transfers as defined in Article 4A of the UCC and Subpart B of Reg J.

The Credit Union may establish or change cut-off times for the receipt and processing funds transfer requests, amendments, or cancellations. Unless other times are posted for various types of fund transfers, the cut-off time will be at 3:00 p.m. on each day the office is open and which is not a declared federal holiday by the Federal Reserve Board. Payment orders, cancellations, or amendments are received as of the next following funds transfer business day and are processed accordingly.

The Credit Union may charge your account for the amount of any funds transfer initiated by you or by any person authorized by you as joint tenant or other authorized party with the right of access to the account from which the funds transfer is to be made.

The Credit Union may establish, from time to time, security procedures to verify the authenticity of payment order. You will be notified of the security procedure, if any, to be used to verify payment orders issued by you or for which your account will be liable. You agree that the authenticity of payment orders may be verified using that security procedure unless you notify the Credit Union in writing that you do not agree to that security procedure. In that event, the Credit Union shall have no obligation to accept any payment order from you or other authorized parties on the account until you and the Credit Union agree, in writing, on an alternate security procedure.

If you send or receive a wire transfer, Fedwire may be used. Regulation J is the law covering all Fedwire transactions, setting forth your rights and liabilities in a wire transfer involving Fedwire.

If you give the Credit Union a payment order which identifies the beneficiary ("recipient of the funds") by name and identifying or account number, you are responsible to the Credit Union if the funds transfer is completed on the basis of the identification or account number you provided. This is true if the beneficiary's financial institution credits the transaction based only on the identifying or account number, even if it the name on the account is a person different than the named beneficiary.

If you give the Credit Union a payment which identifies an intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution by name and identifying number, a receiving financial institution may rely on the number as the proper identification even if it identifies a different person than named by the financial institution. Therefore, you are responsible for any loss or expenses incurred by a receiving financial institution which executes or attempts to execute the payment order in reliance on the identifying number you provided.

The Credit Union may give you credit for ACH payments before it receives final settlement of the transfer funds. Any such credit is provisional until the Credit Union receives final settlement of the payment. You are hereby notified and agree, if the Credit Union does not receive such final settlement, that it is entitled to a refund from you of the amount credited to you in connection with that ACH entry. Therefore, you are responsible for funds advanced to you prior to final settlement, and may, if the funds are not actually received by the Credit Union, must repay any funds advanced on your behalf.

ACH transactions are governed by operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. In accordance with these rules, you will receive notice of receipt of ACH items in the periodic statements of your account.

If the Credit Union received a funds transfer for you or for other persons authorized to have access to your account, you agree that the Credit Union will provide you with notification of the receipt of all funds transfer by including such items in the periodic statements of your accounts which we provide. You may inquire between receipts of your periodic statements whether or not a specific funds transfer has been received.

If the Credit Union becomes obligated under Article 4A to pay interest to you, you agree that the rate of interest to be paid shall be equal to the declared and calculated rate applicable to the account at the Credit Union to which the funds transfer should have been made or from which the funds transfer was made.

By participating in any such transaction named herein, is in itself your acceptance of these rules, policies, and procedures and any other policy or procedure set forth to you at the time of the transaction.

The information contained herein is current as of 10/2008 and may change at any time.

Your savings federally insured to at least $250,000 and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government. National Credit Union Administration, A U.S. Government Agency.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

FUNDS AVAILABILITY DISCLOSURE

PRIVACY POLICY

WIRE TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

(effective February 26, 2010)

This disclosure contains important information about your rights and liabilities, please read thoroughly and retain with your valuable papers for future reference.

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following governs any electronic fund transfer ("Transaction") made by you, or anyone authorized by you, in connection with your accounts at the Class Act Federal Credit Union ("CAFCU or Credit Union"), whether initiated by an Automated Teller machine ("ATM") or debit card ("Card"), by pre-authorized transaction (transfers authorized on a recurring basis at regular intervals), by audio response, via CyberBranch@Home over the Internet, by bill payment services, or by other means of access provided now or in the future. We will issue you a Personal Identification Number ("PIN") (that you may change to a PIN of your choice) which must be used together with the Card to access the regional network of ATMs, or the national network of ATMs, our own ATMs, or Point-of-Sale Terminals ("POS"). Another PIN (that you may change to a PIN of your choice) will also be necessary to access such services as audio response, CyberBranch@Home, and other electronic systems made available now or in the future to perform Transactions on your Credit Union accounts.

AGREEMENTS. Transactions may only be performed while your accounts have sufficient balances to complete the Transaction requested. Wrongfully obtaining funds from the Credit Union by use of a Card or PIN constitutes a federal criminal offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both. All terms and conditions of any written agreements that have been previously made between you and the Credit Union regarding the use of the Card and PIN and any of your Credit Union accounts apply to all Transactions, unless any terms or conditions in those agreements conflict with the rules and regulations set forth in this disclosure, in which case the rules and regulations of this disclosure shall control. All Transactions, whether deposits, withdrawals, or transfers, made with the Card or PIN are subject to verification by us. Any card or other instrument issued by us shall supersede the present instruments.

PROPERTY RIGHTS. The Card and the PIN are property of the Credit Union and your right to use these in connection with your Credit Union accounts may be terminated at any time without notice. You will surrender your Card or cease to use your PIN whenever we ask for them. You will not allow any other person possession or use of the Card or PIN. It is your responsibility to prevent disclosure and unauthorized use of your Card and your PIN. If you allow any person to use your Card or your PIN, then you will be held liable for any of their use by that person, unless you notify us that the individual is no longer authorized by you to make Transactions on your accounts. We will, as soon as possible after notification, block further Transactions on your account.

CHANGES. We reserve the right to change or add to these rules and regulations at any time, upon giving you reasonable notice at least 21 days prior to the effective date of the change. Such notice may consist of enclosing a notice on or in the statement of the account or mailing a notice in a special mailing. Notice to any joint account holder of the Card or PIN is notice to all of you. In the event we determine that an immediate change is necessary to maintain or restore the security of the electronic fund transfer services or to any account, then we may make the necessary change without advising you in advance. We can delay enforcing any of our rights against you without losing them.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

YOUR OBLIGATIONS. It is very important to keep your PIN confidential and separate from your Card to prevent someone from using it to make Transactions without your permission.

Generally. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account, plus your maximum overdraft line-of-credit, if any. If you tell us within 2 business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your Card or PIN without your permission. If you believe your Card or PIN has been lost or stolen, and you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Card or PIN without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or PIN, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Tell us AT ONCE, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.
